Job Summary:

Want to work with youth?! Come work for After School in Antioch. We are currently seeking committed and passionate Program Instructors to lead academic, physical, and enrichment activities as part of our East Bay After School Programs. Program Instructors must be able to work with up to 20 youths during after school hours Monday through Friday. Some of the benefits of becoming an instructor are:

- Ongoing professional development and growth opportunities
- Ongoing training throughout the year
- School setting experience with enjoyable and exciting activities provided for youth
- School year and summer work opportunities
- Become a mentor to youth in our community
- Flexible schedules for college students
- Pay range starting at 11.00-13.00$ an hour

Job Responsibilities:

As an instructor you will be responsible to create and facilitate lessons and activities that are age appropriate. While teaching youth these activities the goal is to help youth develop new skills to help find their passion or spark a new interest. As an instructor you will be working with peers and teachers on campus to get a better understanding of the youth in program. Maintain positive relationships with students, families and school. As an after school program instructor your job is to be a role model and empower the youth.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Must have an Associate Degree or higher, or 48 or more college units, or pass the Instructional Aide exam
- Must pass a criminal background check and TB test clearance
- Must be punctual and reliable
- Must be able to work every day during after school hours and commit to a full academic school year required for the position
- Must have a desire to work with youth
- Must have a general knowledge base of core elementary and middle school subjects
- Must possess strong classroom and behavioral management skills
- Must be able to work independently and as part of a team
- Must be able to communicate openly in a professional manner with students, parents, community partners, and after-school and school day-staff
- Must maintain confidentiality and demonstrate a high degree of integrity
